here for the last few days en route
to the West.

the county.

rum's store.

The people of this community
have decided to erect a building
in which to hold religious services.

Miss Laura Roland, of Jackson, who has been teaching the District
school No. 72, finished her term Monday January 4. All intelligent people were well pleased with her teaching.

A little girl of Sam Turner's died on New Year's day, and a little boy of Duvall and Susan Osborn died on January 4th, and left a childless home, but Job said the Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away, and blessed be the name of the Lord. Remember, people, that God never makes any mistakes but doeth all things well and is no respecter of persons.

TROUBLESOME.

Several of our citizens went to Hazard to see the new officers inducted into office.

Born, to A. J. Dobson and wife, twins, both girls; the first and only girls of eight children.

Combs & Smith are erecting a friends Christmas day. Among the guests were Ans Hays and Esquire Whitaker and family. The Holliday.

key, are visiting Keen Bryant of Onkdale.

Miss Laura Mullins, of Jett's Creek, has been visiting her sister, Miss Nannie Mullins, of War
Creek.

Buddy Terry, of Jett's Creek,
had his house slightly damaged
by fire last Saturday. The damage will amount to about $75.

Jim Buck Fugate, formerly of Jett's Creek, has moved to near Roger Callahan's, and Arch Barrett has moved from Lick Branch to the Spicer farm, near here.

Misses May Day, of this place,
and Gertrude Crawford, of Athol, went to Danville Saturday to attend school, and Anne McIntosh
and Thomas Terry, Jett's Creek, and Miss Cappie Terry, of Turkey, went to Berea for the same purpose.

For Winter Comfort.

Long, warm coats are necessary for the comfort of small girls. In the illustration is shown one of the best of the season's models, which is made of dark red kersey finished with a simple banding and tailor stitching, but which can be made available for many purposes and for many purposes. In this form it makes an admirable school and

GIRL'S LONG COAT.

all around coat that is warm and protective, but the model executed in any one of the rain proof materials becomes adapted to stormy weather, and if this is worn over one of the sweetest girls like so well it becomes quite warm enough for even a severe winter day. Both the front and the back are tucked at the shoulders, these tucks being attached for a short distance only, but pressed into position below. At the neck is the most comfortable of all collars for children's wear, and the sleeves are the accepted ones of the season.

A Skipton.

Smith—Do you believe in dreams?
Jones—No, I married one.—Leslie's
Weekly.

Wash Dresses.

Wash dresses for house wear are one of the innovations, and they will be worn all winter, says the Philadelphia Public Ledger. Gradually women have been working up to it by discarding dresses for cotton waists, and now the cotton, linen or gingham skirt has followed.

Vogue of Gold Lace.

Wonderful things are being done with gold lace and with an old net, which in shadow seems to have just a thread
of gold here and there, but in the sun blazes with every one of its tiny threads.

Brown Furs Popular.

Brown furs hold their own with a vengeance. Sable is easily first, with mink and brown squirrel treading upon its heels.

We Are Going to Publish, beginning in a few days The Two Vanrevels

A powerful love drama full of fire and action
BY BOOTH TARKINGTON

Author of "The Gentleman from Indiana," "Monsieur Beaucaire," etc.
The Heroine—a beautiful girl just out of a convent school.
Her Father—the wealthiest and most important man in his town, owning half of it.
The Hero—an admirable young American but hated by the heroine's father.
The Villain—the hero's rival for the hand of the heroine.

We need hardly assure our readers, who know the author's reputation, that out of such material he has made a magnificent love story which will fascinate the young and please every member of the household.
The scene is laid in Indiana in the early days of the republic, affording an excellent picture of the manners, customs and clothes of that period.

Delightful story, and adds materially to the success already scored to Booth Tarkington's credit.—Buffalo Commercial.

THE PASSING YEARS.

[Written for The News.]

It doesn't seem long since we were all boys
Amusing ourselves with numerous toys.
A driving the cows and feeding the sheep,
A number of which we once used
to keep.
We would hoe in the corn all
through the long week,
Then Saturday eve we'd go to the
creek
To fish out the chubs that seemed then to be
As large as would now a fish of the sea.
The toils of the week then we soon
would forget.
Oh, the joys of those eves, I remember them yet.
We'd hunt for the wren and the mocking-bird's nest
Just to see the young birdies, but not to molest.
We'd hunt the red service and
mulberry tree,
And watermelon time to us was a sneeze.
We'd kill all the lizards and trounce
many frogs
That we found in the new-ground
among the old logs.
The grey squirrel and rabbit
would flee from our track.
With fear lest we'd carry them
home in a sack.
The bob-white feared badly to call to his mate
Lest he would soon be fried brown
on our plate.
But now these ambitions have faded away
And others have taken their place
now to stay.

In place of us boys, as it then used to be
It is now our boys, just as full of their glories
Now pay close attention to the rest of my rhyme,
And you'll find what is changing
us along all the time.
'Tis the small winged moments
that's fast flitting by,
Though doing their work, yet unseen to the eye.
They soon bring manhood to the
chubby faced boy
And mingle some sorrow in the cup with his joy.
To manhood they soon bring an
unsteady trend,
A came in the hand and a snowy
white head.
Then soon a white stone with letters thereon
Will tell the sad story what time
has done.
So let us begin, lest some be too
late,
To strive to enter the straight
welcome gate.
Which is Jesus the Christ who died to receive
Every prodigal son that His word
will believe.
It is open for all that will seek and will pray
With all their heart for the narrow way.
This way the humble of earth
have trod

It leads through the world to the City of God.

J. H. HIERONYMUS,
Primrose, Ky.

Ben Bigstaff, true friend and soldier and mountain evangelist, made us promise that when he died we would tell his old comrades in arms how he was saved.
When he passed away we had his remains in our sitting room and when there was no one in the room except him and myself, black mamie came in and said: "Mr.
Redd, are you going to do what
Mr. Bigstaff asked you to do about ten years ago?" I said I did not recollect. "He told you whom he wanted for his pall-bearers and what he wanted you to say to his friends. And she repeated word for word the conversation which had taken place at the table. I told her I would if the opportunity presented itself.
She said: Mr. Bigstaff did not say anything about the opportunity, but you promised that you would." I determined there and then that by the eternal help of God I would. So when the services were concluded by the preachers, I arose and said: "Uncle Ben, Uncle Ben stayed all night at our house, last night, and he is the message that he sent to his old comrades and black mamie was his mouth piece to remind me
what to say, and this is his message: 'Make peace with God by accepting His Son as your Savior, and as he did, stand right under the droppings of the sanctuary and confess Christ before men, and God will pardon your sins and receive you into Heaven.'" Waller Rodes was there, and he said that Uncle Ben's message impressed him more than any other part of the service and that he would never forget it if he lived to be a hundred years old.—Dick Redd, in the Lexington Gazette.

carry the best lines and offer the best inducements. The man who does not seek your trade either does not want it or does not deserve it. By patronizing the men

WOMAN AND FASHION

For House Wear.

There is something especially charming and attractive about such an afternoon gown as this one. It is simple at the same time that it is smart and up to date and is suited to the entire range of lightweight wool and silk fabrics. In the illustration a banann yellow cashmere is trimmed with an effective and harmonizing banding, but

AFTERNOON GOWN.

while the yellow is a favorite color all
the apricot shades are greatly to vogue, white is always correct, and there are also a great many darker and more serviceable shades which might be suggested. In addition to the cashmere, velvet, taffeta and the like will be found in every way desirable. The waist is a singularly desirable one and can be utilized both for the many soft silk and also for the flatter materials, which are so well liked for separate blouses. In this last instance it would be trimmed with embroidery or lace banding in place of the heavier sort and makes an exceedingly dainty and charming blouse.

Jewelry Without Owners.

"Do you know," asked a prominent man in the jewelry trade in Maiden lane, "that there are thousands of dollars' worth of unclaimed jewelry reposing
in the safes and safety deposit vaults
of goldsmiths and jewelers?"

"These valuable articles consist either of jewelry left to be repaired and which has never been called for because of forgetfulness or because the owners have suddenly left the land of the living without leaving any record of the valuables. Many an executor of a tangled estate will be glad to get this hint."

"Last November I had two relatives
of persons who were killed in the Biecum disaster finally trace heirlooms to me. So far as my records show, my patrons left articles to be repaired, and shortly afterward the fire destroyed all records of the transfer. I am always glad to get rid of these left overs not only because I wish the cash value of repairs, but also because they are regarded as 'lost.'" - New York Press.

DICK CHANEY ARRESTED

For Plundering Eversole & Son's Store—Others Suspected.

On last Friday night the store of Eversole & Son was broken into and robbed of several suits of clothes and other merchandise. They broke into the store through one of the back windows. The thieves hid a considerable part of the clothing in a bank of sawdust near J. W. Ford's mill, which some children found on Sunday while at play. That night W. L. Eversole and Robert Davidson waited in a building near by and when Richard Chaney came to look for the goods they placed him under arrest and delivered him to Jailer James L. Little. He was brought before Judge Cardwell Monday for trial, but he waived examination and was held in a bond of $600 for his appearance before the circuit court to answer any indictment that may be found against him on said charge, in default of which he was sent to jail.

It is thought that some other parties were engaged with him and the officers are following up every clue available to apprehend them. This is a crime almost unknown to our courts, but several complaints have been turned in lately. The officers seem to think they have got about evidence enough to send the whole gang to the penitentiary, where they properly belong.

Chaney is a brother of Bud Chaney, now serving a sentence in the penitentiary for manslaughter.

Bridge Falls Into the River.

The bridge of the Kentucky Lumber & Veneer Co., across the river a mile and a half below Jackson, collapsed under a loaded train Tuesday afternoon and five loaded cars, together with the entire span of the bridge, between the two abutments, went into the river. The locomotive had just cleared the defective portion when the span went down and the engineer, together with two ladies, who were on the engine with him, were almost miraculously saved. Two men, John Robinson and a colored man named Caudill, were on the cars that went down and were severely bruised, but it is not believed their injuries will prove fatal. The loss of the bridge and the loaded cars will probably amount to many thousands.

Mabel Jett Dies from Burns.

Mabel, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Jett, was horribly burned from an open grate Wednesday morning, from which she died Thursday morning. The child had been left in the room alone, and the attention of the mother was attracted by its screams; when she rushed in and found the child's clothing in flames. Physicians were summoned immediately, but the burns were so serious that medical aid could not reach them. Mrs. Jett's hands were severely burnt while trying to extinguish the flames. Funeral services were held at the house Thursday afternoon conducted by Rev. W. W. Powell, assisted by Revs. Setzer and Preston.

Fugitives Captured.

Boone Barnett, who shot and killed Burns Patrick, near Henderson, Magoffin county, on December 26, was lodged in the jail at Salyersville Tuesday. He was arrested in a barn in Floyd county. He had been hiding in the mountains ever since the killing, and his feet were badly frostbitten.

Dan Lockheart was shot and killed by Monroe Elkins, near Lane, Wolfe county, last week. Elkins was engaged in a quarrel with an old man named Kidd and Lockheart interfered. Elkins then turned and fired upon Lockheart. Elkins escaped to Breathitt county where he was arrested and taken to Campton and given an examining trial before County Judge Center. He was bound over to the grand jury in the sum of $5,000 for his appearance before the Wolfe circuit court, which convenes next Monday.

The bride elect is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Creager and is a pretty and popular girl. The groom to be is a well known young Baptist minister, now having charge of the Baptist church at Jackson, Ky., and we predict a bright future before him. The young couple belong to two of the best families of the county and we join their many friends in wishing them well. They will make their home at Jackson after Feb. 10—Elizabethtown News.

R. O. Davis, manager of the Jackson-Hazard Telephone Co., was here Monday, looking after the interests of the company.

A Friend of Her Youth.
"For mercy's sake, don't put me near a million!" said Mrs. Lookyoung to her friend.
"Why not?" said the other. "He's awfully interesting."
"I know it," said Mrs. Lookyoung, "but I never sit next to him at dinner, but that he hurts me something like, 'You remember back in the old pioneer days'!"—Detroit Free Press.

She—Do you believe in hypnotism?
He—When you look at me I do.

Stomach Troubles and Constipation.

"Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are the best thing for stomach troubles and constipation I have ever sold," says J. R. Cullman, a druggist of Pottsville, Mich. They are easy to take and always give satisfaction. I tell my customers to try them and if not satisfactory to come back and get their money, but have never had a complaint." For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

The following is from the North China Herald: When their majesties recently left Peking for Peking there were in the imperial cortege six imperial sedan chairs exactly alike, all occupied and borne by the same number of men as usually carried their majesties' sedan chairs, the only exception being that no one knew which of these six imperial sedan chairs contained either the empress dowager, emperor or empress. This was, of course, to confuse any would be anarchists.

For coughs and colds no remedy is equal to Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar—the Liquid Cold Cure. It is different from all others—better, because it expels all cold from the system by acting as a cathartic on the bowels. Gives strength to weak lungs. Affords immediate relief in croup, cough, colds, etc. Sold by Jackson Drug Co.

John W. Gates was recently asked for a tip on the market and is said to have replied as follows: "You young fellows had better keep out of the market, as it will not do you any good. After you go out the senior member of the firm will ask how much that young man is worth. Then some one will say, 'Oh, about $100,000.' Then the senior member will say, 'Well, leave him about $20,000.'"

Perfection can only be attained in the physical by allowing nature to appropriate and not dissipate her own resources. Cathartics gripe, weaken, dissipate, while DeWitt's Little Early Remedy simply expels all putrid matter and bile, thus allowing the liver to assume normal activity. Good for the complexion. Sold by the Jackson Drug Co.

It doesn't believe that advertisement tells the truth.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Indigestion is easily overcome by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, because this remedy digests what you eat and gives the stomach a rest—allows it to recuperate and grow strong again. Kodol relieves indigestion, belching of gas, sour stomach, heart-burn, etc., and enables the digestive organs to transform all foods into the kind of rich red blood that makes health and strength. Sold by Jackson Drug Co.

Great Sport.

One Minute Cough Cure contains not a atom of any harmful drug and it has been curing coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough so long that it has proven itself to be a tried and true friend to the many who use it. Sold by the Jackson Drug Co.

CHOICE MISCELLANY

Work of a Beaver Colony.
If the beavers continue their work on a dam across the North Fork just above the bridge across the river east of Hothekiss they will ultimately cause several thousand dollars' worth of damage to property in that vicinity when high water comes in the spring. At present the little fellows have nearly twenty feet of their work completed, and the water is rushing against it without appreciable damage.

Mr. Thomas Blackwell, who has a lease on the Metcalf property, wrote to the state game warden asking what can be done about the matter, the law not allowing beavers to be killed. The warden replied that the beavers belonged to the state, but a permit could be granted for $1 to kill ten or twelve beavers, provided they were doing damage, but that the pelts must be carefully prepared and shipped to the warden for sale, whereupon one-half of the proceeds will be returned for the "trouble" in catching them.

A dam such as the beavers build will back the water up on to the Metcalf property and wash away a large part of the place. Besides that the beavers are cutting down a large number of trees now on the place, and situated so near town, the growth is of some value.—North Fork (Kan.) Times.

A Thousand Dollars Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurnes, a well known coal operator, of Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel and stones with excruciating pain. I got Foley's Kidney Cure, and the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good." Jackson Drug Co.

Quite So.
"I am going to make all this fruit into preserves for pies," announced the housewife.
"Now, wouldn't that jar you?" murmured the peach to the apple.—Baltimore American.

Chronic Constipation Cured.

One who suffers from chronic constipation is in danger of many serious ailments. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures chronic constipation as it aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels, restoring the natural action of these organs. Commence taking it today and you will feel better at once. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is very pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. Jackson Drug Co.

Tess—I thought you said you loved Jim from the bottom of your heart.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Absolutely Harmless.

The fault of all children medicines containing poisonous substances, is sometimes more disastrous than the disease from which they are suffering. Every mother should know that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly safe for children to take. It contains nothing harmful and for coughs, colds and croup is unsurpassed. For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

Disappointed.
"Dear me," she said when she was introduced to the sprightly young author, "but it's funny how people will form ideas! I had pictured you to myself as somehow like the hero of your story."
"Oh! And don't you find any resemblance?"
"Not a bit. You know, you described him as being handsome and witty."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Cured His Mother of Rheumatism.

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism," says W. H. Howard, of Husband, Penn. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried. In fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

Dog Wanted.

At the last anniversary of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, a member of the committee apologized for the shortness of his sermon by explaining that he had chewed up the first and last pages of his manuscript, where a little boy in the congregation had heard to exclaim, "Say, I wish somebody'd give our minister a purp."—Lynchburg News.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best Made.

"In my opinion Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best made for colds," says Mrs. C. W. Walker, of Pottsville, Cal. "There is no doubt about its being the best. No other will cure a cold so quickly. No other is so sure a preventive of pneumonia. No other is so pleasant and safe to take. These are good reasons why it should be preferred to any other. The fact is that few people are satisfied with any other after having once used this remedy. For sale by Jackson Drug Co.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Cures Colds, Croup and Whooping Cough.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR

No Sleep For Dolly.
Small Nancy, aged four, had a doll to which she was devotedly attached. It could open and shut its eyes, and every night Nancy took it to bed with her, carefully closing its eyes before the light was turned out. One day the doll, as dolls from that immortal have been known to do, met with an accident which placed the eye shutting mechanism out of business and left it with not only widely and permanently opened eyes, but badly damaged ones as well. At intervals during the remainder of the day Nancy pleaded to have her dolly "cured," but nothing was successful. At bedtime, when she had dozed her nightgown and started for her little bed, her mother saw she had forgotten the doll and reminded her of it, saying:
"But, Nannie, you've forgotten your baby. She won't be able to sleep unless you take her to bed with you, as usual."

To her mother's amazed astonishment, Nancy threw a half contemptuous look over her shoulder at the doll, recumbent on a chair, and said:
"Oh, what's the use? She can't sleep anyway. Who ever heard of anybody sleeping with their eyes wide open?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Woman's Excuse.

The Original.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. Jackson Drug Co.

A Romantic Smuggle.

They were walking out together on a cloudless night under the light of the big round moon, which seemed unusually bright and beautiful. Suddenly he stopped, clasped his hands and cried passionately:
"Oh, Mary! Look at the moon tonight, isn't it beautiful—magnificent?"
"Yes, isn't it, William?" she replied, with equal enthusiasm. "It looks just like a big fried egg, don't it, dear?"—Judy.

How to Avoid Pneumonia.

We never heard of a single instance of a cold resulting in pneumonia or other lung trouble when Foley's Honey and Tar has been taken. It not only stops the cough, but heals and strengthens the lungs. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and refuse any substitute offered. Dr. C. J. Bishop, of Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case." Jackson Drug Co.

Their Joint Card.

"Haven't Henpeck and his wife settled their differences about their visiting cards?"
"Oh, yes. They've compromised on Mr. and Mrs. Maria Henpeck."—Philadelphia Press.

The soothing and comforting effects of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve when applied to Piles, sores, cuts, boils, etc., subdues pain almost instantly. A Long, Long Time.

How long have you been after my daughter?
"Er—ever since I lost me—er—job!"

A reasonable amount of food thoroughly digested and properly assimilated will always increase the strength. If your stomach is a "little off" Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will digest what you eat and enable the digestive organs to assimilate and transform all foods into tissue-building blood. Kodol relieves sour stomach, belching, heartburn and all forms of indigestion. Pleasant and strengthening. Sold by the Jackson Drug Co.

Hands and Housework.

Sensible young matrons who desire to preserve their hands will use a soap for washing dishes. The hands need then never come in contact with dishwater and may be kept soft and white. Another common sense scheme for the preservation of the hands is the wearing of gloves for housework. As a protection against callous spots on the palms a pair of old gloves may be laid aside to wear on sweeping days.

FOUND.

John W. Dean had a pain in his back for about five years and it finally became so great that he could not work and, in fact, could not walk at times. Several physicians failed to cure him, but he found a remedy. It was Smith's Kidney and Nerve Tonic. For sale by S. H. Siddham & Son, Jackson, Ky.
